

Rural & Urban field experience

Apart from clinical, the institute has affiliated rural and urban health centers for field experience. The affiliated rural health center is located around 09 kilometers away from institute. During field experience in rural area, students also utilize primary health center (PHC) where the institute is affiliated and permitted for field experience. Affiliated urban health center located 03 kilometers away from institute where the nursing students undergo for field experience.